

Face Up: An Afternoon of Poetry and Conversation

Tuesday, April 11
4:30–6:30 p.m.
Saint Paul Campus
Library and Learning
Center, Room 306

Join the Metro State community as we celebrate National Poetry Month with the recent publication of professor Suzanne Nielsen's book of poetry, Face Up. The collection is the winner of the 2021 Oleb Books Poetry Prize. It serves as a springboard for conversations around moments when facing up to something, or someone, is the only way out of a dilemma.

Metro State students and faculty will read original work that speaks to facing up, and engage in a panel discussion. Attendees will be entered to win several prizes from the publisher, Oleb Books. Copies of Face Up: A collection of Outlaw Poems will be available for purchase.

This event is sponsored by the College of Liberal Arts at Metro State

ASL interpretation will be provided
