19. Contact public relations people at Metro so announcements are posted

Sample letter initially sent to faculty list serves:

Dear Colleagues:

Please nominate your very best student writer(s) for this year's 2020 Carothers Distinguished Writers Award.

To do this, simply forward the enclosed attachment to any (up to four) student(s) you wish to nominate.

This is the 29th year that the Robert L. Carothers Distinguished Writers Award ($500) will be given out from the Minnesota State Colleges and Universities Foundation.

Any enrolled Metropolitan State University student who has excelled as a writer in any discipline is eligible. There are no restrictions regarding major, financial need, or genre/discipline of the work. It should be noted, though, that in past years, despite a diversity of judges whose specialties have ranged from technical to imaginative to business to critical writing, applicants whose written language shows an eloquence, sophistication, creativity, and overall mastery of metaphor, line by line and overall, tend to rate highest across the board.

The enclosed attachment will ask your nominated student to submit ONE double-spaced prose piece (fiction, essay, academic paper, etc.) and/or THREE TO SIX poems with any line spacing (max. 15 pages), using the following guidelines:

- Email to Carothers Award Selection Committee Chair: Suzanne.nielsen@metrostate.edu
- Subject line: Carothers Competition
- Send a max. 15 page writing sample as an attachment to the above email
- Include on this writing sample a name, current address, email and phone number
- Deadline: 11:59 pm, April 1, 2023

The Selection Committee will announce the winner in late April.

MnSCU will send a congratulatory letter to the student, followed by an award of $500.

Background: The Robert L. Carothers Distinguished Writers Award was created in 1991 to acknowledge Chancellor Carothers' outstanding contribution to the Minnesota State University System and to higher education in Minnesota by providing a way to highlight the work of student writers at the Minnesota state universities. This endowment provides one student at each of the state universities with a $500 award in the spring of each year.

Much Appreciation,

Ed

Sample letter faculty may send to nominees:

Dear Student:

Every year the Metropolitan State University faculty members have an opportunity to give one award ($500) to an outstanding student writer. The Robert L. Carothers Distinguished Writers Award is sponsored by the MinnState system.

I am nominating you for the award and, if you're interested, would like you to apply.

Here's what you need to do before 11:59 pm, April 1, 2023:

- Submit one double-spaced prose piece (fiction, essay, academic paper, script, etc.) and/or three to six any-spaced poems (a maximum of 15 pages total). If submitting imaginative stories/scripts, they may not be based on, or fan continuations of, pre-existing, published works. Please submit only your strongest and most original work.
- Email your attachment(s) to Suzanne.nielsen@metrostate.edu (update)
- Subject line: Carothers Competition
- In this email, please provide the name and position of the person nominating you.
- Deadline: 11:59 pm, April 1, 2023 (no exceptions)
- On your submitted competition document, include your NAME, student ID #, current GRADE POINT AVERAGE (this will be verified), MAJOR and DEGREE SOUGHT (if you know), ADDRESS, EMAIL, and PHONE NUMBER.
- You may also mail your submission to Suzanne Nielsen, Metropolitan State University, 700 East Seventh Street, St. John's Hall, 201, St. Paul, MN 55106. (same deadline)

This is a wonderful and long-standing program and I hope you'll apply!

Sample letter after winner is selected (send to all submitters):

Dear Carothers Award Nominee:

Thank you for your submission to the 2020 Robert L. Carothers Distinguished Writers Award, sponsored by the Minnesota State system.

It was a difficult decision to make from a very strong pool of applicants, but please help congratulate Creative Writing major, Jason Emrick as the 2020 Carothers Award winner.

Honorable mentions go to (in no particular order) to: Hawo Jama, and Ying Lai Moua.

The committee, consisting of faculty/staff: Lydia Hayes, Margaret Vaughan, and Diane DeRosier, were impressed by the strong and diverse pool of applicants. Please remember, as a nominee for this distinguished award, you have already achieved something very special (and noteworthy for your resume).

Sample letter to the winner:

Congratulations, Jason. You've been selected as the 2020 Carother's Award winner for your submission titled at Metropolitan State. The award comes with a $500 prize, which will be distributed next month to you at your address. The three judges were: Lydia Hayes, Professional Advisor; Margaret Vaughan, Resident Faculty, and Diane DeRosier, title?

Congrats again. I hope reading and writing remain pleasurable and nourishing practices for you for a long time to come!

Hoping this finds you well,
Suzanne

Sample letter to honorable mentions:

You have been named as an honorable mention for the 2020 Carothers Distinguished Writers Award--congratulations! Though this was not the winning spot in the contest, it is still an honor in this tough competition, and you are encouraged to list this on your vitae/resume because of this distinction.

Thank you for submitting your excellent work, and congratulations again on this recognition!

Sincerely,

Suzanne Nielsen
