Hi Suzanne,

I'm so sorry I missed the event last weekend. I'm grateful for the opportunity to stay on the Haute Dish team post graduation, however I need to step down as an editor.

I just accepted my dream job as a writer for local non profit Tree Trust. I wouldn't have gotten this far without the support and encouragement of amazing professors like you. Thanks for everything.

You will remain my favorite professor and biggest inspiration. I'll see you around in our writer's group.

Best,

Miranda
